About the Event

Today's woman power is working at the top position in various fields Organized cultural program with Ras Dandiya in SSK college The teachers presented the costumes of women power in various fields

23 Oct 2023 : Today's women power is at the highest position in social, political, government, educational, health, religious, cultural, arts and sports fields, etc. SSK at wadzire is for the noble purpose of waking up this woman power and letting the future citizens of the country take her role model. The college organized a cultural program called Nari Shakti-Ras Dandiya on the occasion of Sharadiya Navratri festival.

Inauguration of the Event

Navratri, also known as "Nine Nights," is one of the most vibrant and spiritually significant festivals celebrated in India. This auspicious Hindu festival spans nine nights and ten days, typically occurring in the autumn months of September or October. It holds a deep cultural and religious importance for millions of people, especially those who worship the Divine Feminine, as it signifies the triumph of good over evil. It's a time for communities to come together, adorn themselves in colourful attire, and engage in traditional dances like Garba and Dandiya. These festivities promote unity, harmony, and the preservation of cultural heritage.

Conclusion

It is said that the sound produced by the Dandiya dance brings positive energy. Therefore, this helps end the negativity from one's life. In such a situation, during the Garba dance, women use three claps, which provides positive energy. Playing Dandiya or Garba during Navratri is not a new tradition.
